A BILL

To prohibit use of body-gripping traps by personnel of the Department of the Interior and the Department of Agriculture and on lands of such departments.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Limiting Inhumane
5 Federal Trapping for Public Safety Act”.

1   SEC. 2. PROHIBITION OF USE OF BODY-GRIPPING TRAPS BY
2                   PERSONNEL AND ON LANDS OF THE DEPART-
3                   MENTS OF THE INTERIOR AND AGRI-
4                   CULTURE.

5       (a) PROHIBITIONS.—Except as provided in sub-
6 section (b)—

7                   (1) no personnel of the Department of the Inter-8                   rior or the Department of Agriculture may, in per-9                   formance of their duties, use, recommend, train re-
10                  garding the use of, or plan for use of, any body-grip-11                  ping trap; and

12                  (2) no person shall use or possess any body-13                  gripping trap on property under the administrative 14                  jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior or the 15                  Department of Agriculture, without regard to whether 16                  the person is employed by, or working under a 17                  contract with, the Department of the Interior or the 18                  Department of Agriculture.

19       (b) EXCEPTIONS.—

20                  (1) LIMITATION ON APPLICATION.—

21                   (A) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (a) shall not 22                  apply with respect to use of a body-gripping 23                  trap to—

24                   (i) control documented, invasive spe-
25                  cies to achieve resource management objec-

1                   tives where alternative methods have 2                   failed; or

- 3                         (ii) protect a species that is—
4                             (I) listed as an endangered spe-
5                             cies or threatened species under the 6                             Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16
7                             U.S.C. 1531 et seq.); or 8                             (II) treated by the Forest Service
9                             as a sensitive species.

10                  (B) CONDITIONS.—

11                  (i) IN GENERAL.—Subparagraph (A) 12                  shall not apply unless—

13                     (I) such use of a body-gripping
14                     trap is in accordance with applicable
15                     State and Federal law;

16                     (II) prior to use of a body-grip-
17                     ping trap, all available and viable non-18                     lethal methods for such control or 19                     protection, respectively, are at-20                     tempted; and

21                     (III) such attempts are docu-
22                     mented in writing, and such docu-
23                     mentation is maintained at the head-
24                     quarters of the department that em-

1 ploys the individual engaging in such 2 attempt.

(II) does not include any body-gripping device.

20                   (c) PENALTIES.—

21                             (1) KNOWING VIOLATIONS.—Any person who 22 knowingly violates or fails to comply with this Act
23 or any regulation issued under this Act shall be 24 fined under title 18, United States Code, or impris-
25 oned for not more than 1 year, or both.

1                             (2) OTHER VIOLATIONS.—Any person who oth-
2 erwise violates or fails to comply with this Act or 3 any such regulation shall be fined under title 18, 4 United States Code, or imprisoned not more than 5 180 days, or both.

6                             (d) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

7                             (1) BODY-GRIPPING TRAP.—The term “body-8 gripping trap”—

9                                 (A) except as provided in subparagraph
10                             (B), means any device that is intended to kill 11                             or capture an animal by physically restraining 12                             any part of the animal on land or in an aquatic 13                             environment, including any—

14                                 (i) spring traps, including steel-jaw,
15                             padded, enclosed and dog-proof, or other 16                             modified foothold or leghold traps;

17                                 (ii) kill-type trap, including Conibear
18                             and body-crushing traps;

19                                 (iii) snare traps, including foot snares 20                             and strangling neck snares; and

21                                 (iv) modified version of any such a 22                             trap; and

23                                 (B) does not include any—

24                                 (i) cage or box trap; or

25                                 (ii) suitcase-type live beaver trap.

1                             (2) INDIAN COUNTRY.—The term “Indian coun-
2         try” has the meaning given that term under section
3         1151 or title 18, United States Code.

4                             (3) PERSONNEL.—The term “personnel” in-5         cludes individuals employed by, working under a
6         contract or cooperative agreement with, or otherwise
7         collaborating with the Department of the Interior or 8         the Department of Agriculture.

9                             (e) ANILCA NOT AFFECTED.—Nothing in this Act
10      is intended or shall be construed to conflict with the Alas-
11      ka National Interests Lands Conservation Act (16 U.S.C.
12      3101 et seq.).

13                             (f) STRICTER STATE LAWS NOT AFFECTED.—This 14      section shall not be construed to preempt or limit any re-15      quirement of any law or regulation of a State or political 16      subdivision of a State, that—

17                             (1) is more restrictive than the requirements of 18      this section; or

19                             (2) creates penalties for conduct regulated by 20      this section.
